DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The formal drawings filed on 8/ 10/05 are accepted and approved by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 24-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
 - a. Claim 27 is no longer reciting method steps and appears to be in apparatus claim format which renders the claim indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 , 20-23, and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Newbould (6874773).

Newbould discloses a multi axis chuck device having a first portion (2&6), a second portion (1), a third portion (9) which are all rotatable connected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2- 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Newbould (6974773) in view of Prochac (6427993).

- a. Newbould is discussed above.
- b. Newbould does not disclose scales indicating the degree of freedom.
- c. Prochac discloses a holding device having a scales indicating markings on the apparatus so the measurements can help align the workpiece or workpieces.
- d. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the Newbould device by providing scale indication markings as taught by Prochac so that apparatus the measures the alignment the workpiece or workpieces.

5. Claims 24-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Floren (3273879) in view of Taniguchi et al (4492356).

- e. Floren teaches a method rotating a multi axis chuck to various position and repositioning.
- f. Floren does not disclose a motor having a controller with a sensor.

Art Unit: 3723

g. Taniguchi et al teach a method multi axis chuck having a motor (8) and controller (34) with a sensor (30) which allows for automatic positioning of the workpiece .

h. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified Floren device by replacing the hand crank with a motor and controller as taught by which allows for automatic positioning of the workpiece .

i. et al which allows for automatic positioning of the workpiece .

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 11-18 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed 8/10/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

9. Applicant states that the prior art does not read on amended the claims.

j. Look at element 8 of Newbould it rotates orthangonally. Therefore rejections stand. The applicant has miss read the reference making all of the arguments off point. T

Conclusion

10. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
